It is my pleasure to welcome you to the eighth annual Hard Hat & Black Tie Dinner and Auction. Tonight we gather at the Portland Art Museum to celebrate and support the work of Habitat for Humanity Portland/Metro East. This evening would not be possible without our generous sponsors and donors. Thank you to those who graciously donated their time and money to help plan this special event.

Habitat has a proven model that works. Families and individuals purchase an affordable home and help build it with the support of our staff and volunteers. Habitat also performs critical home repairs to help prevent the displacement of homeowners with low incomes.

We have developed a bold plan to triple the number of people Habitat serves each year. We need each of you to help us put this plan into action. With every paddle raised this evening, your generous support will help even more Habitat homeowners build strength, stability, and self-reliance.

Last year was an amazing year where we raised over $500,000 at the auction. Wouldn’t it be great if we could meet or exceed that goal this year? I hope you will join my peers on the Habitat board and me by giving generously so we can increase the impact Habitat has in our local community.

In Partnership,

Ian K. Gordon, Board Chair
Habitat for Humanity Portland/Metro East

WALL RAISING CHALLENGE

WITH EVERY BUNDLE OF LUMBER BOUGHT during the Live Auction, another wall is raised, and with every wall, another home is built with a local family.

If we are able to buy 500 bundles of lumber this evening, we will be able to frame 20 Habitat homes for 20 families! Your generosity will help build healthy homes and healthy families, one bundle of lumber at a time!

The Ou / Chen Family

We are honored to have Yanfen join us this evening to share her family’s story. Yanfen, her husband Xiaoyun and their two young children, Kiana and Koby, live inside one bedroom of a four-bedroom home that they share with 10 other extended family members. Like many Portland families who experience rising rents, doubling up with other family members or friends is often the only way to make ends meet.

Yanfen was introduced to Habitat by a friend and decided to apply to seek a stable home and better future for her children and her family. She works as a waitress and cashier at a local Chinese restaurant. Xiaoyun works as a delivery driver. Their son Koby is an aspiring artist and practices Taekwondo. He recently won 1st place in his age category when he drew a poster for the Fair Housing Council’s annual poster contest.

In late 2018, Yanfen, Xiaoyun and their kids will purchase their new three-bedroom Habitat home at Brooklyn Pines in the Jade District. Yanfen and Xiaoyun believe that owning their own home will provide stability and a better education for their children. Yanfen says, “A good living environment can make them healthy and happy.”

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY PORTLAND/METRO EAST believes in a world where everyone has a decent place to live. We help families build strength, stability, and self-reliance through homeownership right here in Portland. Every donation ensures a family has a foundation to build a future.

Rose City Soccer

Donated by Nat Borchers and Portland Timbers & Thorns FC

This is the package for all of you die-hard fans in Soccer City USA! Score extra points with your child by sending them and three friends to a soccer training taught by one of Major League Soccer’s most brutally effective center backs in history—former Timbers player Nat Borchers! His 15 career goals (one of the best totals for a defender in MLS history) and his USSF “A” Coaching License make this soccer training a once in a lifetime opportunity for aspiring footballers! Next, get ready to take in some game-time with two tickets to a Portland Timbers home match and four tickets to a Portland Thorns home match. Before the Timbers game, get up-close and field-level with Timbers pre-game VIP passes. After the Thorns game, experience an exclusive post-game autograph session with Thorns players. To top it all off, show your Timbers pride with a signed team jersey.
