- An update on Habitat for Humanity's progress and vision from President & CEO, Steve Messinetti.
- An inspiring testimonial from a family whose life have been dramatically improved through Habitat for Humanity.
- An uplifting event emceed by KGW's Brenda Braxton.

WHEN: Wednesday, April 26th, 2017

7:00 am – registration and check-in
7:30 am – program and continental plated breakfast
8:30 am – Program concludes promptly at 8:30

WHERE: Oregon Convention Center, Portland Ballroom, 777 NE Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd., Portland

WHY: Funds raised at the breakfast will be used to build and repair homes to create affordable homeownership opportunities for local, low-income, hardworking families in the Portland Metro area. Habitat plans to build 30 homes this year and repair up to 25 more.

PARKING: The Oregon Convention Center provides a limited number of spaces in their underground parking garage. The rate to park is $7 and can be accessed via First Avenue. In addition, there is street parking with coin-operated meters nearby. The OCC is easily accessible by utilizing public transportation. The Portland Streetcar Central Loop and TriMet Bus Line #6 both stop right outside the center on NE Martin Luther King (MLK) Blvd. The blue, red and green MAX light rail lines all stop at the OCC at the intersection of NE MLK Blvd. and NE Holladay Street.
