what Annual Fundraising Breakfast

A powerful and inspiring opportunity to find out more about Habitat for Humanity Portland/Metro East. Enjoy a free breakfast during the one-hour program, which includes:

- An inspiring keynote from Cheryl Strayed, author of the #1 New York Times bestselling memoir WILD, the New York Times bestsellers TINY BEAUTIFUL THINGS and BRAVE ENOUGH, and the novel TORCH. Her books have been translated into forty languages around the world. WILD was chosen by Oprah Winfrey as her first selection for Oprah's Book Club 2.0.
- A moving documentary that follows a local family whose life will be forever changed through homeownership.
- An update on Habitat for Humanity's progress and vision from President & CEO, Steve Messinetti.

when Wednesday, April 24, 2019

7:00 am – registration and check-in

7:30 am – program and plated breakfast

8:30 am – program concludes promptly at 8:30

where Oregon Convention Center

Portland Ballroom

777 NE Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd., Portland

why

Funds raised at the breakfast will be used to build and repair homes for local families in the Portland Metro area in need of a decent place to live. This year, Habitat plans to break ground on 50 homes and repair 30 more.

parking

The Oregon Convention Center provides a limited number of spaces in their underground parking garage. It can be accessed via First Avenue. In addition, there is street parking with coin-operated meters nearby. The OCC is easily accessible by utilizing public transportation. The Portland Streetcar Central Loop and TriMet Bus Line #6 both stop right outside the center on NE Martin Luther King (MLK) Blvd. The blue, red and green MAX light rail lines all stop at the OCC at the intersection of NE MLK Blvd. and NE Holladay Street.
